

Please do not let up on the requirements for the do not call list. The telephone system should not be abused by telemarketers calling people who do not want to talk to them and do not want their services.

Thank you.

Brenda Walter